247 WEST 37TH STREET

247 West 37th Street sits on land originally assembled by the prominent real estate developer A.E. Lefcourt, at which time it was the largest plot in the Garment District controlled by an individual owner. The current building was designed by the architectural firm of Gronenberg & Leuchtag and built by the Bricken Construction Company in 1924, and was originally known as the Bricken Centre Building.

The building has recently undergone significant renovations and boasts state-of-the-art elevators and a brand new lobby. 247 is home to an array of non-profit and fashion tenants such as JASA, Workmens Circle, The Settlement Housing Fund and the famous American designer, Prabal Gurung. Located in the base of the building is Stitch Bar & Lounge which was voted the best "After Work Bar" in New York City by Citysearch.com. Situated in the heart of the historic Garment District, the building allows for a convenient walk to nearly any amenity, and numerous transit options are blocks away, allowing for a hassle-free commute to or from the building.

GARMENT DISTRICT

The Garment District lies at the heart of the commuter triangle, marked by Penn Station, Grand Central Station and Port Authority Terminal. Situated between Fifth Avenue and Ninth Avenue, from 34th to 42nd Streets, this area is also known as the Fashion District. It has rich history as home to showrooms, fashion design and production houses, as well as garment wholesalers. Well-known labels like Carolina Herrera, Calvin Klein and Donna Karan among others all maintain a collection of showrooms, production centers and offices in the area.

Even with its rich history in fashion, the economics of manufacturing have changed over the years, so the district has seen an influx of other businesses, including media, creative agencies, law firms and tech. Even so, local sample sales still prove popular with workers and residents.

Art plays a vital role in the area with Space for Public Art – a street-level space for local artists and designers to grab the attention of passers-by. For a mix of art and café culture, MacarOn Café and Café Grumpy are popular destinations.

For mainstream retail all needs are met at 34th Street and Herald Square. Bryant Park to the east offers open space and seating to meet and relax, alongside the stunning New York Public Library's main building and its 50 million-plus catalog.

The major transportation hubs at Penn Station, Moynihan Train Hall, and Times Square serve the Garment District, with access to 1,2,3,A,C,E,N,Q,R and W trains, plus connection to New Jersey Transit, Amtrak, and Long Island Rail Road. Metro-North Railroad can be accessed from Grand Central Terminal.

Committed to building a better New York since 1952, GFP Real Estate is a vertically integrated owner, operator, property manager and developer of commercial real estate in the New York Tri-State Region. With 57 buildings and more than 13.8 million square feet under Ownership, GFP's portfolio includes some of the City's most iconic real estate assets, including the Flatiron Building (175 Fifth Avenue), The Film Center Building (630 Ninth Avenue), 515 Madison Avenue, 1560 Broadway and 40 Worth Street. In addition to managing and leasing its own properties, GFP also provides management and leasing services to third-party building owners, representing additional buildings that cover more than 5 million square feet. The combined GFP portfolio of both owned and managed properties includes 80 buildings with over 18.5 million square feet, cementing the firm's reputation as one of New York City's premiere real estate owners and operators.

Helmed by three generations of the Gural family over six decades, the company is steeped in the tradition of doing business the family way. GFP Real Estate delivers unparalleled service to their over 2,500 tenants, one-third of which are not-for-profits. The company employs more than 600 full-time professionals to oversee every element of real estate management. Their dedication results in a remarkable 90% tenant renewal rate and 99% occupancy rate.
